I also just love being athletic and in shape

Please describe your personality.

Dynamic and energetic personality with a blend of boldness , stability , curiosity , and discipline . I am confident, ambitious, and willing to take on new challenges, with both the drive to initiate and the patience to see things through. I am well-suited for activities and career paths that allow me to lead, explore, and create.

Stable, Loyal, and Sensory-Oriented Confident, Independent, and Passionate Practical and Thoughtful Communication Sociable and Curious Ambitious and Goal-Oriented.

Please describe your hobbies.

I'm a creative and compassionate soul who loves connecting with others and making a positive impact. In my free time, I enjoy doing hands-on crafts and exploring different forms of self-care with friends, like yoga, meditation, and personal growth workshops. I'm also a big believer in the power of astrology and love using it to help myself and others understand our unique paths in life.

Animals are a huge part of my heart—

I volunteer at a local dog shelter, where I get to spend time with all kinds of pups and help them find loving homes. I'm a huge animal lover, and it brings me so much joy to support them. I also stay active through rollerskating, which is a fun way to keep moving, and I absolutely love live music. Concerts and festivals are my happy places, where I get to connect with people, embrace new experiences, and enjoy amazing music.

Egg Donation History

Why do you want to become an egg donor?

I'm fortunate to be a very fertile woman, but I personally don't plan to have children. I feel that my gift of fertility is something I can share with others who dream of building their own families. For me, the idea of helping another person or couple experience the joy of parenthood is truly meaningful. I want to support other women on this journey, knowing how important it is for many to have a family. I feel that, rather than keeping this gift to myself, it would be incredibly rewarding to help someone else live their best life and fulfill their dreams of parenthood.

If you could send a message to the Intended Parents. What would you say?

Dear Intended Parents,

I want to start by saying how honored and grateful I am to be a part of this journey with you. I know that deciding to welcome a new life into your family is filled with hope, dreams, and perhaps a few challenges along the way. I am here with you in spirit, holding those same hopes and dreams for the beautiful life you're creating.

As someone who cares deeply about supporting others and helping them find happiness, it means the world to me to share this gift with you. I believe that every family has a unique story, a journey that is entirely their own, and I am humbled to play a role in yours. Becoming an egg donor isn't just a choice for me—it's a way to give something meaningful, something that I believe can help bring more love, joy, and light into the world.

I want you to know that I'm sending all my best wishes for this path you're on. My intention is for you to have all the love, laughter, and cherished moments that come with welcoming a child into your life. I am so moved by your strength and commitment to building a family, and I truly believe that the love you have to share will create a beautiful, nurturing environment for your future child.

Thank you for allowing me to be part of something so profound and life-changing. My heart is with you, and I'm wishing you every joy and blessing in the days to come.

With all my love and support,
