Questions:

- Why do you want to become a donor?

I want to become an egg donor because I genuinely want to help others who are struggling to start a family. I believe that giving someone the chance to experience the joy of parenthood is one of the most meaningful things I could do. It's a way to make a positive impact on someone's life and share a part of myself in a way that creates hope and happiness for others.

- For Egg Donor: Being a donor is a big responsibility. It requires going to several doctor's appointments, taking injections and having minor out-patient surgery. Do you feel prepared to commit to this process?

Yes.

- Are you open to being matched with all types of families regardless of sexual preference, marital status, ethnicity or sex of the egg recipient?

Yes.

- If they request it, are you willing to meet your intended parents?

Yes

- Are you open to meeting the child in the future if that is requested?

Yes

- Are you open to exchanging future contact information with your intended Parents(s)?

Yes

- Where did you grow up?

I grew up in Barcelona, Spain. I was living in Australia but I just came back to my home city.

- Do you have any children? If so, tell us about each of them:
No.
- Do you have any siblings? If so, tell us about each of them: I have a younger brother named David. Despite being four years younger than me, he's incredibly intelligent and very responsible. He's already running a business that's doing amazingly well, which I find so impressive and inspiring.
